Steps to create a Local Group in your country

A quick and easy way to create an OSI Local Group in your country can be found at this page [http://www.osi-ngo.org/agir-vous-memes/create-the-ngo-local-group-in-your-region?lang=en].

The first steps to creating an OSI LOCAL GROUP in your region are:

1) Bring together a minimum of 15 people to form the group => To do this, simply post a message, on the Forum page, introducing yourself	2) In order to form a Local Group, a minimum of 3 people must register and participate in the in Paris http:/www.educateur-scientifique.com/Project-Based-Learning-Participatory-Science-Education-SDGs.html?lang=en' title="">Participatory Research Educational Training Project dedicated to continuous learning and the successful achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (see link) [>http://www.educateur-scientifique.com/Project-Based-Learning-Participatory-Science-Education-SDGs.html?lang=en] (Individuals may register for different sessions, there is no need to complete the training as a group.)	3) Host, in the country in which the Local Group will operate, an OSI Level 1 â€œParticipatory Research Educational Training Project dedicated to continuous learning and the successful achievement of the Sustainable Development Goalsâ€• Training Session for all future members of the Local Group (a minimum of 60 people must attend this training). => Please use this page to discuss how to organize this training in your area with OSI (see discussion thread on this subject)	4) A minimum of 3 people from the Local Group, must register and complete at the UN in Geneva the Initial Training for Program Managers (see link) [http://www.osi-ngo.org/agir-vous-memes/centre-de-ressources/services/formations/tronc-commun-st-et-developpement-professionnel-dans-l-ong/article/formation-initiale-aux-metiers-de-responsables-de-programme?lang=en] (Individuals may register for different sessions, there is no need to complete the training as a group.) => This working seminar will allow you, along with other participants from your region, to develop a roadmap that will help your Local Group bring OSI's work to your country, this will begin with activities targeting the local economy (job creation, participatory research projects to resolve local issues, science education for targeted audiences such as children, adults, school groups, etc.)

Professionals, like you, are currently helping to establish an Objectif Sciences International Local Group in your country.
